CELEBRATING WATER PROFESSIONALS APPRECIATION WEEK.

#CAWaterWeek

In honor of Water Professionals Appreciation Week, we celebrate the dedicated team at West Valley Water District, whose commitment ensures that our community has access to safe and reliable water services. Our skilled professionals work tirelessly behind the scenes in various roles to bring this essential service to your homes!

Their expertise and passion not only maintain the integrity of our water systems but also contribute to the sustainability of our resources. From October 5 to October 13, WVWD will be celebrating its water professionals by highlighting some of our water heroes!

Join us as we celebrate WVWD staff by following WVWD on Instagram, Facebook and X and use the hashtag #ThankWaterPros.

Educational Resources for Teachers and Students

West Valley Water District (WVWD) understands how crucial it is to invest in our future water leaders and is committed to providing education resources for teachers and students.

Educational resources through the Water Education Water Awareness Committee

- WEWAC offers a Water Scholar Program which provides financial support to high school seniors planning to attend a two or four-year college in the following school year.

Deadline: February 7, 2025.

- Edubucks provides grants for K-12 teachers for creative classroom projects that increase students' awareness on the importance of water.

Deadline: November 1, 2024
